About Shascade's Work Connection

Shascade's Work Connection (SWC) is a program of Shascade Community Services Inc. We are dedicated to providing services to people referred by the Department of Rehabilitation and Far Northern Regional Center, who are seeking employment in Shasta County.

Shascade's Work Connection Offers:

- 1) Job Development
- 2) Job Club
- 3) Job Coaching
- 4) Group Placement
- 5) Individual Placement
- 6) On-Going Support

How to Begin Services

The Seven Steps to Employment

- 1) Be interested in working.
- 2) Attend an orientation on Supported Employment.
- 3) Your Service Coordinator makes a referral to the Department of Rehabilitation.
- 4) Department of Rehabilitation will send you SWC information.
- 5) An employment team meeting is scheduled to talk about services.
- 6) Attend an intake meeting at SWC for you to enter our Program.
- 7) You begin work.

It's that simple!

“Serving your neighbors, your business, and your community”

Shascade's Work Connection currently operates a thrift store called The Treasure Connection and is located at:

160 Masonic Ave
Redding, CA 96003.

SWC operates a Janitorial Service, Building Maintenance, a Candy Store, a Photo Studio, and much more!

SWC partners with many local vendors to provide supported employment services to our consumers. The time frame for services varies for each individual.
